RSL Queensland Partner Education & Training Scholarship Guidelines

Calendar Year 2021

The RSL Queensland Partner Education & Training Scholarship (Partner Scholarship) guidelines will aid you in preparing your application. Please read the guidelines in full prior to submitting your application to ensure you meet the eligibility criteria for the program and have provided all relevant documentation.

Purpose:

The Partner Scholarship guidelines provide information for Applicants wishing to apply for the following initiatives:

- Education & Training courses

Assessment of Applications:

All applications submitted to RSL Queensland will be assessed to confirm eligibility.

Outcome of Applications:

RSL Queensland will email Applicants with advice of the outcome of their applications. Applicants should anticipate that it will take a minimum of 28 days from receipt of a complete and correct application (inclusive of completed application form and any required attachments).

Your Responsibility:

Applicants are responsible for ensuring that they have read these guidelines, that their application meets the eligibility criteria and that the information provided in their application is true and correct. Approved Applicants must advise RSL Queensland (partnerships@rslqld.org) of any subsequent changes in circumstances relating to:

- a) change in relationship status
- b) change to residential location
- c) change in employment status
- d) change to approved study (including fee alterations)

Applicants should be aware that RSL Queensland will disregard any applications which contain false or misleading information. In the event an Applicant receives a scholarship using false or misleading information on their application, RSL Queensland may withdraw the offer of scholarship to the Applicant and the Applicant will be required to return any scholarship funding provided by RSL Queensland.

Application Assistance:

If you require assistance in completing the Partner Scholarship application process contact RSL Queensland on partnerships@rslqld.org.

We value all voices:

We encourage people from all backgrounds who are eligible based on the Part 2 of this document, to apply.

Part 1 – Introduction

- 1.1 A career in the Australian Defence Force (ADF) presents unique opportunities for Defence families, however the dynamic nature may cause disruption to ongoing employment for Partners of ADF members.

INTENT OF PARTNER SCHOLARSHIP

- 1.2 Partner Scholarships provide funding to support education and training to contribute to the employability of Partners who have experienced difficulty maintaining employment due to their Partner's military service;
- 1.3 A Partner Scholarship does not guarantee employment.

AIMS

- a) Partner Scholarships provide RSL Queensland scholarships to approved Applicants to contribute to their employability; and
- b) Partner Scholarships support Defence families during and post the course of a military career.

GENERAL

- 1.4 These guidelines apply to a spouse or a recognised interdependent Partner (as defined in Part 9 – Administration/Definitions).
- . For the purposes of these guidelines the term 'Partner' will be used to mean spouse or interdependent Partner.
- 1.5 Funding for Partner Scholarships will be considered from Applicants whereby Partners are located in both Queensland and inter-state. Priority will be provided to Applicants residing in Queensland and for Partners of current serving Defence Members in Queensland and the Northern Territory. Studies must be undertaken through providers who are registered by the Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency (TEQSA) or are Australian Registered Training Organisations (RTOs). Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL), Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) and Master of Philosophy (MPHIL) will not be eligible for scholarship funding.
- Partner Scholarships are intended to support study being undertaken or commenced in the relevant calendar year in line with the scholarship round.

PARTNER SCHOLARSHIP FUNDING

- 1.6 Applicants can apply to access funding for the following:
 - a) Education & Training scholarships.
- 1.7 The scholarship amount for Partner Scholarship initiatives is a contribution towards a Partner's study costs; it is not the responsibility of RSL Queensland to fund the full cost where the cost exceeds the Partner Scholarship funding cap.
- 1.8 The scholarship amount provided to Partner Scholarship Recipients is up to $4,000 annually for up to three (3) years, with the maximum total scholarship amount being $12,000.
Recipients whose scholarships commence mid-year will be eligible for the maximum total scholarship amount of $10,000.
For any courses that are less than three years in full time study, then the scholarship amount will be reduced accordingly, as deemed appropriate by RSL Queensland (in its absolute discretion).
- 1.9 Scholarship positions are limited and it is entirely up to RSL Queensland's sole discretion as to which Applicants are successful.
- 1.10 The scholarship amount provided through the Partner Scholarship can be used for educational expenses directly associated with the approved TEQSA or RTO course, including course fees, textbooks and resources associated with course and administration fees and equipment required to complete course. Travel costs will only be considered if Applicant demonstrates long distance travel is required to attend course components in order to complete course and this part of course cannot be completed at a closer location. The scholarship amount cannot be used to cover accommodation, meals, postage, regular travel to and from any venue or location from which the education or training is conducted, or electronic devices.
- 1.11 Scholarship funding can only be used for reimbursement of expenses incurred for educational expenses relating to the scholarship term, from the date the RSL Queensland Scholarship has been formally accepted by the Recipient. Scholarship funding cannot be used to offset expenses incurred post the completion of either the scholarship end date or the course end date.
Approved Applicants must provide a copy of the original invoice and an official receipt as evidence that payment has occurred. The expense will be reimbursed to the approved Applicant's nominated bank account.
For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that a scholarship is awarded mid-semester, scholarship funding cannot be utilised for expenses incurred at the commencement of the semester (prior to the award of the scholarship) and will only be approved for expenses incurred from the date the scholarship is formally accepted by the Recipient.
- 1.12 It is the responsibility of the scholarship Recipient to request pre-approval for the use of scholarship funding in accordance with item 7.2. Application of funds is conditional on pre-approval by RSL Queensland.

Part 2 – Eligibility

2.1 Partner Scholarship eligibility criteria is based on the following:

- a) Applicants must demonstrate they are the Partner of a current or former Defence Member with either operational service or three or more years continuous full-time or other service. The Applicant must include a copy of an official document showing the Defence Member's operational service and the period or periods of continuous full-time service (e.g. Discharge Certificate or Certificate of Service including the enlistment date and if relevant, discharge date).
- b) Applicants must demonstrate they are either married or in a recognised de facto relationship with a current or former Defence Member for more than three years continuous duration at time of application. Two of the following must be provided to demonstrate relationship and evidence must be provided to demonstrate minimum three-year relationship if not married:
 - Household bill with both Partner and Defence Member name listed
 - Medicare statement for both Partner and Defence Member with same residential address listed
 - Bank statement demonstrating joint bank account
 - Drivers Licence copy of both Partner and Defence Member with same residential address listed
 - Marriage certificate
(if marriage certificate provided no other documentation required to demonstrate relationship)
 - A statutory declaration by the Defence Member and witnessed by a Justice of the Peace (JP) confirming the relationship with the Partner for a minimum three year period

Partners are eligible to apply for the Partner Scholarship if the Defence Member is deceased, as long as Partner can demonstrate a minimum three year continuous relationship with the Defence Member and they were a Partner to the Defence Member at time of death.

- c) Applicant must not be receiving any other education / training benefit or scholarship. Successful Applicants are required to notify RSL Queensland if they are awarded additional education/ training benefit or scholarship at any point during the term of their RSL Queensland scholarship.
- d) Partners who have Regular Employment (as defined in Part 9 – Administration/Definitions) will not be eligible for Partner Scholarship funding. Applicants must be able to demonstrate employment status.
- e) Applicant must be enrolled (or planning to enrol) in an undergraduate, tertiary course or training course of one or more academic years duration provided through a registered TEQSA or an RTO. Study undertaken overseas, outside Australia or with an education provider not based in Australia will not be eligible for scholarship funding. This includes semesters studied abroad organised through an Australian institution. Under certain circumstances and at RSL Queensland's discretion, short courses will be considered but scholarship amount will be altered accordingly, and postgraduate courses (in the absolute discretion of RSL Queensland) will be considered if the Applicant can demonstrate the need for completion to increase employability. Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL), Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) and Master of Philosophy (MPHIL) will not be eligible for scholarship funding.

- f) Applicant must demonstrate the employment options which may arise out of the proposed course of study to RSL Queensland's satisfaction.
- g) Applicant must demonstrate hardship or vulnerability due to Defence Member's ADF service. Examples of hardship or vulnerability would be:
 - a. A Partner who has been a stay at home parent, is now returning to work to be the sole income earner for the family as the Defence Member has medically separated and is unable to work;
 - b. A Partner has resigned from employment to become the recognised carer for Defence Member and due to health improvement, Partner can now return to work;
 - c. A Partner who has a professional career but Defence Member has been posted to a new location whereby jobs in trained profession are very limited and would require further education or training to increase employability in new location.
- h) Applicant must provide copies of bank statements and other relevant documentation, including Partner's financial information (if applicable) as requested by RSL Queensland to demonstrate hardship or vulnerability listed.
- i) Approval will be granted for one course of study at a time and application forms with multiple courses listed will not be considered. Proof of completion and transcripts of results of proposed course / subject / unit will be required at the end of each Scholarship Funding Period identified in the Scholarship Funding Outline, prior to further payments of approved scholarship occurring. Further scholarship payments will not occur until transcript of results is received by RSL Queensland.
- j) Ongoing eligibility criteria exists during the term of the scholarship and Applicants who become successful Recipients of a scholarship are required to achieve satisfactory academic progress (at least 50% in each subject) to enable them to receive subsequent scholarship payments.

Part 3 – Scholarships available

EDUCATION / TRAINING TO SUPPORT EMPLOYABILITY

- 3.1 Funding may be available under Partner Scholarships for vocational courses and tertiary study up to and including an undergraduate degree. Postgraduate degrees to compliment an Applicant's current qualifications, will only be considered if it is demonstrated this study is required to achieve employment. Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL), Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) and Master of Philosophy (MPHIL) will not be eligible for scholarship funding.
- 3.2 Education and training covered by Partner Scholarships must be:
 - a) accredited;
 - b) provided through a registered TEQSA or an RTO;
 - c) likely to add employment related skills; and
 - d) GST free.
- 3.3 Education and training can be provided:
 - a) via face-to-face attendance; or
 - b) online; or
 - c) by correspondence.

Part 4 – Limitations on Scholarships

EDUCATION / TRAINING TO SUPPORT EMPLOYABILITY

- 4.1 Applicants must clearly demonstrate the relevance of the proposed education/training to support their employability. Partner Scholarship funding is not available to fund a career change (without evidence this is required to obtain employment), ongoing professional development within an Applicant's current and/or established Employment Stream or self-interest/hobby courses.
- 4.2 Under Partner Scholarships, a career change will be deemed to be any variation to an Applicant's current and/or established Employment Stream or educational qualifications. While it is acknowledged that career change can occur for a number of reasons, the intent of the Partner Scholarship is to provide funding to approved Applicants to contribute to their employability, not to assist with increasing personal fulfilment, therefore without demonstration the career change is necessary to gain employment, it will not be eligible for a Partner Scholarship.
- 4.3 Under Partner Scholarships, professional development will be deemed to be education/training undertaken to complement existing qualifications and therefore will not be eligible for a Partner Scholarship unless it is demonstrated further education/training in the same field as the Applicant's current qualifications is necessary to obtain employment i.e. retraining to fulfil a certification requirement.
- 4.4 Self-interest or hobby courses will not be eligible for Partner Scholarships as these courses are not likely to improve a Partner's employability.
- 4.5 Approved education and training, as part of the Partner Scholarship funding, that attract GST, will not be eligible.
- 4.6 Partner Scholarship funding will only be granted if the education/training course is accredited and provided through a registered TEQSA institution or RTO. Refer to www.teqsa.gov.au/national-register for the TEQSA register and www.training.gov.au for the register of RTOs. Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) will not be eligible for scholarship funding.
- 4.7 Partner Scholarship Applicants who have previously been a scholarship Recipient will not be eligible to apply for secondary Partner Scholarship funding, unless the Applicant can demonstrate extenuating circumstances exist and additional education/training will result in employment for the Applicant.
- 4.8 Applicants and scholarship Recipients are required to declare to RSL Queensland any circumstances which may give rise to actual or perceived conflicts of interest. This includes but is not limited to an Applicant being related to an RSL Queensland board member or employee by birth or by marriage; an Applicant being employed by RSL Queensland; an Applicant being employed by or volunteering for a Partner program of RSL Queensland. RSL Queensland reserves the right to determine eligibility based on the perceived level of conflict of interest.

Part 5 – How to apply

- 5.1 Applications must be completed in full and will be assessed by RSL Queensland once all relevant documents have been submitted and received by RSL Queensland. Failure to provide all documentation as requested may result in your application being unable to be processed and assessed appropriately.
- 5.2 Interested Applicants need to read the eligibility criteria and then complete and submit the Partner Scholarship application form online. Partner Scholarships cannot progress until the Defence Member has completed the relevant authorisation. Incomplete applications will not be processed.
- 5.3 Applicants need to clearly demonstrate the relevance of their education/training course to increasing employability.
- 5.4 Applicants must disclose any qualifications already held for anything higher than secondary education i.e. diploma or undergraduate degree.
- 5.5 Applicants who are currently studying in the course they are applying for a scholarship in should complete the details indicating the course, the institution and year of study. Applicants will be required to submit a copy of course enrolment or similar document giving the name, institution, and length of the course.
- 5.6 Applicants who are currently studying in the course they are applying for a scholarship in should attach a copy of their results and reports for the last academic year. If the Applicant did not do as well as expected, an explanation must be provided.
- 5.7 Applicants starting a new course who have an offer of place already should provide proof of offer and enrolment. In the event course enrolment cannot occur unless an Applicant becomes an approved Recipient of Partner Scholarship funding, enrolment verification must be provided prior to the payment of any scholarship funding.
- 5.8 Applicants to prepare and provide to RSL Queensland copies of bank statements and other documentation to demonstrate hardship or vulnerability, if requested by RSL Queensland.
- 5.9 Scholarship application periods remain open until all available scholarships for the relevant year are awarded, or until the 17th of August each year, prior to the following scholarship round commencing.

Part 6 – Approved partner scholarship Applicants (“recipients”)

- 6.1 If any circumstances change and the Recipient is unable to continue or complete their course of study for any reason, it is the Recipient's responsibility to negotiate with the service provider to have the education and/or training deferred to a later date. Recipients are required to advise RSL Queensland in writing of the changes as soon as reasonably practical. If the Recipient does not advise RSL Queensland of the change in circumstances, ongoing scholarship eligibility may be impacted and scholarship funds may be required to be returned. Please refer to clause 7.7 of these guidelines for the process for reimbursing RSL Queensland. It is up to RSL Queensland's sole discretion whether the Recipient will remain eligible for the scholarship if changes are made to the scholarship approved course and/or Scholarship Funding Outline.
 - 6.1.2 RSL Queensland may permit a scholarship to be deferred for the maximum term of 12 months and deferment can only occur once during the term of the awarded scholarship. Confirmation must be provided from the course provider that they approve the course being deferred. It is up to RSL Queensland's sole discretion to authorise a scholarship to be deferred.
- 6.2 Applicants who have previously been approved for a Partner Scholarship and want to apply for a secondary scholarship must complete a new Partner Scholarship application, disclosing they have been a previous Recipient of Partner Scholarship funding.
 - 6.2.2 Evidence must be attached to demonstrate the Partner Scholarship previously funded education and/or training has been completed.
- 6.3 Recipients must provide a transcript or other evidence of results at the completion of each academic teaching period and immediately upon the request of RSL Queensland. Scholarship funds may be withheld if the Applicant does not achieve at least 50% in each subject and RSL Queensland may in its absolute discretion, determine that no further scholarship funding will be awarded to that Applicant.
- 6.4 Recipients must inform RSL Queensland of any proposed change to the conditions of their Scholarship and seek confirmation of the Scholarship status. This may include (but is not limited to) a proposed change to their chosen course of study, course provider, length of course, employment status, relationship status or residential address. RSL Queensland reserves the right to review the Scholarship eligibility should conditions be revised.
- 6.5 Recipients who complete their required study and achieve the course qualification must provide evidence to RSL Queensland in the form of a certificate of attainment/ completion/ graduation or academic transcript acknowledging the qualification is complete.
- 6.6 Recipients are expected to uphold the values of RSL Queensland and RSL Queensland reserves the right to cease the Applicant's scholarship in circumstances where values are not upheld, in the sole belief of RSL Queensland. The RSL Queensland values are able to be viewed on our website.
- 6.7 Recipients must maintain communication with RSL Queensland and make contact at least once during each Funding Period identified in the Scholarship Funding Outline. The Scholarship Funding Outline will be provided in the Partner Scholarship Offer that must be signed and returned by the Recipient. Failure to maintain contact in line with the above, may result in the Scholarship being cancelled at the sole discretion of RSL Queensland.

Part 7 – Payment or reimbursement

7.1 At the time of the scholarship being awarded the Recipient will receive a Scholarship Funding Outline by RSL Queensland. This will confirm the maximum amount of scholarship funding the Recipient is eligible for in each funding period. As a general guide only, Recipients may expect to be eligible to access up to half of the annual scholarship amount awarded in each Scholarship Funding Period, i.e. a scholarship awarded for up to $4,000 annually will enable a maximum of $2,000 to be accessed in the first 6-month period, and upon demonstration of achieving satisfactory marks (50% or higher) Recipients will be eligible to access up to $2,000 in the second 6 month Funding Period.

7.2 The scholarship Recipient must request pre-approval for the use of scholarship funding. Application of funds is conditional on pre-approval by RSL Queensland.

7.3 The Recipient pays the course related fees after approval has been granted, and seeks reimbursement from RSL Queensland, within a reasonable time frame, no longer than three months from date of payment to the institution, unless otherwise approved by RSL Queensland. The Recipient must provide a copy of the original invoice and an official receipt as evidence that payment has occurred. The expense will be reimbursed to the Recipient's nominated bank account.

RSL Queensland will not accept screen shots or print outs of online banking transactions as evidence of payment.

7.3.1 In extenuating circumstances, RSL Queensland may pay course fees direct to an institution on a Recipients behalf upon receipt of an authorised/official invoice. It is not the responsibility of RSL Queensland to make payments to institutions prior to important dates on the Recipient's academic calendar, like Census dates. It is the responsibility of the Recipient to ensure invoices for course fees are provided to RSL Queensland with sufficient time for payments to occur and important information regarding the payment is clearly communicated by the Recipient. Recipients should allow two weeks from the date of request for payments to be made.

7.4 Requests for reimbursements and payments will only be approved for study within the current Scholarship Funding Period. There is no discretion to approve funding applications for assistance retrospectively.

7.5 Request for reimbursements for course related uniform items (including shoes) must be pre-approved. Recipients will be entitled to up to $200 reimbursement per Funding Period for uniform items. Reimbursement of shoes will only be permitted once per annum. Recipients will be required to provide evidence of the uniform requirements from their Tertiary provider and only items specific to the course (e.g branded clothing, industry-specific uniforms) will be considered.

7.6 Invoices or statements issued by the ATO for HECS-HELP/ FEE-HELP loans will not be considered. For the avoidance of doubt, payments by RSL Queensland directly to the provider will only be approved up to the fee due date. No direct payments to the course provider will be approved once the course fees have been accrued to HECS-HELP/ FEE-HELP.

7.7 For Recipients who are obliged to repay Partner Scholarship funds to RSL Queensland pursuant to these guidelines, RSL Queensland will provide written confirmation of the debt, bank details and the payment options available.

Part 8 – Administration

DISCLAIMER

- 8.1 RSL Queensland will not accept any responsibility for any loss or damage caused by the Applicant or any other person arising from the failure by an Applicant to comply with these guidelines, or arising from any ambiguity, discrepancy or error contained in an application.

FALSE OR MISLEADING INFORMATION

- 8.2 Applications may be disregarded if, in the belief of RSL Queensland, false or misleading information has formed a component of an application. In the event an Applicant is successful in receiving a scholarship, who has provided false or misleading information, the Applicant must immediately return all scholarship funding provided by RSL Queensland.

APPROVING AUTHORITY

- 8.3 Applications will be reviewed and assessed by RSL Queensland staff, with Applicants notified of outcome of application at the end of the assessment period (a minimum of 28 days from application submission). The decision on whether an application is successful or not is in the absolute discretion of RSL Queensland and the Applicant acknowledges that it has no right to challenge any decision by RSL Queensland as to whether an Applicant is successful or unsuccessful in obtaining Partner Scholarship funding.

DISCRETIONARY PROVISIONS

- 8.4 If an Applicant is not eligible for assistance, they may apply in writing to RSL Queensland requesting discretionary approval for special/exceptional circumstances. This request must be sent to Partnerships@rslqld.org. When assessing this request, RSL Queensland will consider the following factors:
- that the application aligns with the intent and aims of the Partner Scholarship (refer to Part 1 clauses 1.2-1.3); and
 - any other factors relevant to the application and may require review of additional information to support the request.

PRIVACY

- 8.5 In general, RSL Queensland will use any information provided in connection with the RSL Queensland Partner Scholarship Application to provide ongoing Scholarship support to the Recipient, including possible wellbeing support, in accordance with the attached APP5 Notice.
- 8.6 All information provided in connection with an application (including in or associated with the Application Form) will be managed in accordance with RSL Queensland's Privacy Policy. The RSL Queensland Privacy Policy contains information about the way RSL Queensland collects and uses personal information and the purposes for which it is held. The RSL Queensland Privacy Policy can be found on RSL Queensland's website.
- 8.7 If an Applicant is unsuccessful, all information provided in connection with the application will be destroyed within a reasonable timeframe after the scholarship round closing date (see item 5.9).
