Hi,

I just thought that I would write you a note to say thank you.

The ~~free~~ freedom and lifestyle I enjoy today is thanks to your courageous efforts. As I can't watch you march or attend an ANZAC Day ceremony myself, I thought that I would put my thanks and appreciation in words. May your memories be filled with the positive and fun relationships you shared in such different times. Please know that your efforts are deeply and sincerely appreciated.

Hello,

My name is Maddie & I just wanted to write this letter to show my appreciation towards you as you were ~~brave~~<sup>courageous</sup> enough to go & fight for our country. I am so sad that I cannot attend any ANZAC day ceremonies, so this is why I am writing to you now to truly thank you for your services. I hope that your memories are filled with the positive & fun relationships you shared in such difficult times. Please know that your service is deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,

Maddie a grade 11 student.

Dear
Veteran

Dear Veteran,

This is just a note to say thank you. I know that the freedom and lifestyle I enjoy today is thanks to your courageous efforts. As I can't attend the ANZAC Day Ceremony, I thought I'd put my appreciation in words. I hope you stay healthy during these coming months because of coronavirus. Please know that your efforts and service are appreciated and I am very grateful to live in a country like our own.

Thankyou,

THANK YOU!!

Hi, I thought I would just write you a note to say thank you!! It is because of your courageous efforts that I am free and allowed to enjoy my life without fear. I truly admire everything you have done for not just me but for the whole of Australia. As I can't watch you march or attend an ANZAC day ceremony in person, I thought I would put my thanks into words. May your memories be filled with the positive and fun relationships you shared in such difficult times. Please know that your efforts are deeply and sincerely appreciated.

Hi,

I hope you are doing well in these tough times. I want to thank you for all the good you've done for our country, allowing us to live freely and happily. As I can't attend an ANZAC day ceremony or watch you march, I wanted to show my appreciation through this letter. I hope in these sad and difficult times you still find joy in your everyday activities and still find time to communicate with your loved ones, even if it may not be in person. Thank you again for making Australia the wonderful country it is today. Wishing you good health and fun times.

Love,

Thankyou

Dear veteran,

Hi, I'm a student at St Rita's and I just thought that I would write you a letter to say thank you. Thank you for the freedom and lifestyle that I get to enjoy today because of your sacrifices. Thank you for all the opportunities that I am able to have because of your courageous efforts. As I can't watch you march or attend an ANZAC Day ceremony this year, I just wanted to let you know that I will be thinking of you and your comrades. I hope that during this strange time your thoughts and memories are filled with positivity and peace. Please know your efforts were, are and always will be deeply and sincerely appreciated.

Thank you for your service and stay well.
